

The Controversial Truth Episode #21

Student Loan Debt bubble bursts:

http://libertycrier.com/finance/the-scariest-chart-of-the-quarter-student-debt-bubble-officially-pops-as-90-day-delinquency-rate-goes-parabolic/?utm_source=The+Liberty+Crier&utm_campaign=0897107600-The_Liberty_Crier_Daily_News_11_28_12&utm_medium=email

It pays not to strive:

<http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2012-11-27/when-work-punished-tragedy-americas-welfare-state>

Of course it makes sense to put a major banker in charge of the Treasury:

http://money.cnn.com/2012/11/27/news/economy/buffett-dimon-treasury-secretary/index.html?iid=HP_River

The real deficit:

<http://www.newsmax.com/Newsfront/government-debt-burden-treasury/2012/11/27/id/465500>

<http://online.wsj.com/article/SB10001424127887323353204578127374039087636.html>

Dave's awesome Holiday Gift Guide

- 1) Bikes
- 2) Emergency cell phone charger thingy. http://www.amazon.com/NPT300WXB-Self-Powered-Safety-Weather-Charger/dp/B004R9PT3I/ref=cm_cr_pr_product_top
- 3) Learn another language
- 4) Gym membership
- 5) Fitness competition
- 6) Home protection
- 7) Home emergency like food, water, etc.
- 8) Refinance your mortgage if you can...it's the gift that keeps on giving. Consider a shorter term loan on the refinance.
- 9) A really nice pillow for sleeping or comfy sheets
- 10) Buy a rotatiller and plant a garden
- 11) Camping equipment like tents, backpacks, sleeping bags, etc.
- 12) Spa Day
- 13) Emergency kit for your car
- 14) Generator
- 15) A vacation to a place you've always wanted to go
- 16) A board game to play with family